ICE SKATING

FOR the third successive year, figure skating team Wight Jewels have been chosen to represent their country at the Junior World Challenge Cup.

The Wight Jewels synchronised skating team were picked by the sport's governing body NISA to compete for Great Britain, after a successful result at the Spring Cup competition in Milan last month.

They fly out to Gothenburg, Sweden on Wednesday, ahead of the main event, which is held at the 2,400-seater Frolundaborg Arena, on Friday, with the opening ceremony and short programmes. The long programmes take place the following day.
