FIGURE SKATING

THE Basingstoke Open was a happy hunting ground for the Island's figure skating stars, with podium places and top-class results from skaters of all levels.

Lauren Wood won beginner ladies, aged ten, while Beth Howarth topped the podium with Robyn Johnson second and Sophie-Rose Broadley Darby third in the level 1 13 years and over competition. Kirsty Atter was tenth.

Beckie Vockins won the level 2 ladies, Amy World won the level 5 ladies with synchro team-mate Charlotte Chap-man collecting the bronze. Archie Bicknell won the level 9 men's event with a clean skate, landing his double axel along with eight double jumps to earn his some of his best marks in a national open competition.

Silver medals were won by Rhiannon Hudson (beginner ladies 14 years and over), William Riley (beginner men aged 11 and over), Keelin Scholes (level 3, 14 years and over), while bronze was won by Phoebe Ockendon (beginner ladies, 14 years and over) and Faith Wilkinson (beginner ladies, 12 and 13 years). Both girls were competing in her first national competition.

There were also some great debut performances with Holly Eldridge 15th in beginner ladies aged nine, and James Wright fifth in beginner men's age 11.

In other results, Serena Copping (fourth) and Sarah Baldwin (seventh) did well in the beginners' ladies 14 years and over, while in the beginner ladies' aged 11 contest, Saphire Recalde-Arnold (seventh) and Ayesha Taylor (ninth) also performed well.

Toni Delap came a credible sixth in the level 1 ladies aged ten and under class, against very strong competitors.

The artistic events were very close with lots of judges split on their opinions but Island skaters had fun and gained good results.

Bronze was won by the IW team comprising Izzy Coeshott, Archie Bicknell, Charlotte Chapman, Gemma Sanders, Kirsty Atter, Beth Howarth, Sophie-Rose Broadley Darby, Keelin Scholes, William Riley and Roxy Collins, with their routine to Cats.

Next up for the IW skaters will be in the National Team Challenge, taking place in Bracknell next month.
